DRESS CODE REMINDER

IMPORTANT REMINDER

- Professional appearance is an important aspect of the overall preparation of DECA members for the business world. To that end, DECA supports a dress code for its career-based functions that exemplifies the highest standards of professionalism while being non-discriminatory between genders.
- DECA's board of directors has developed the official dress standards for the International Career Development Conference (ICDC). The official dress code is provided on page 36 of the DECA Guide. Students, advisors, and chaperones must follow the dress code.
- Please remember that an official DECA blazer is required when presenting to a judge and to receive recognition or an award on stage. While official DECA blazers are not required during briefing and testing, professional business dress is required.
- Professional dress should also be worn to all conference sessions including workshops and special meal functions such as luncheons.
- For a more polished, professional appearance, it is recommended that attendees wear appropriate hosiery/socks.
- All skirts and dresses must be at or below the knee.
- As you prepare your DECA members for attending ICDC in Atlanta, please review the dress code with them.

- When judging adherence to the dress code, DECA asks that advisors, teachers and chaperones use observation as the tool for assessing compliance. DECA does not support or condone the touching of students or their clothing as a means of determining whether a student is following the dress code guidelines.

Advisors accepting responsibility from another school must also submit a letter. These two letters must be forwarded with the ICDC registration materials. You must have the right number of chaperones, and you may not share chaperones.

HEALTH + SAFETY: COVID-19 GUIDELINES

DECA Inc. considers the health and safety of all who attend the 2022 DECA International Career Development Conference, including our attendees, staff, partners, volunteers, and on-site vendors/services providers, as our top priority.

DECA Inc. will implement protective measures and protocols aimed at reducing the likelihood of spread of the novel coronavirus ("COVID-19") between participants and others attending its events. These measures and protocols are designed to be consistent with current guidance from the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention ("CDC"), as well as state and local authorities. However, DECA Inc. cannot guarantee that event participants will not be exposed to COVID-19 while participating in or attending its events.

Participants may be required to sign a COVID-19 Acknowledgement and Liability Waiver and provide it upon arrival at the conference. If participants cannot agree or commit to the COVID-19 Acknowledgment and Liability Waiver, they cannot attend.

DECA will continue to monitor the COVID-19 status and remain in constant contact with our hotels and event venues. This plan is a living document that will continue to evolve as the venue and local protocols change:

- Participants must follow all state and local guidelines, as well as those set forth by the hotel hosting the DECA International Career Development Conference.
- All attendees will be required to observe the social distancing rules established by the venue and local authorities at the time of the event.
- All room sets will be based on the social distancing requirements at the time of the event.

Please visit the CDC for recommendations on how to protect yourself against COVID-19:

<https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/prevent-getting-sick/prevention.html>.

Hotel reservations must be cancelled 72 hours prior to arrival to avoid a penalty of one night room and tax. DECA Inc. advises attendees to check the policies of travel and transportation providers to determine their cancellation policies prior to making any arrangements.*
